TECPHI
Tribal Epidemiology Centers Public Health Infrastructure Program

INPUTS
- Centers for Disease Control
- Steering Committee
- Tribes, Tribal Organizations, Urban Indian Organizations, Tribal Communities
- TEC Consortium
- Existing infrastructure and staff of TECs

TECPHI
Tribal Epidemiology Centers Public Health Infrastructure Program

ACTIVITIES
- Community of Practice
- Subawardee Projects
- Grant Writing Support
- Collaborative Projects
- Prevention and Promotion Activities
- Enhancing Evaluation
- Community Health Assessments
- Technical Assistance
- Workforce Development
- Trainings
- Creating/Enhancing Partnerships
- Data Access and Analysis

OUTCOMES
- Improved epi and surveillance to monitor health status
- Increased sustainability of programs
- Improved capacity to incorporate evaluation
- Increased numbers of grants applied for and received
- Increased financial support for prevention and promotion activities
- Increased access to prevention and promotion activities
- Increased capacity for data collection and analysis
- Improved capacity and strengthened infrastructure of TECs
- Coordinated communication of partners
- Increased capacity for and delivery of core public health functions

IMPACT
- Decreased AI/AN health disparities
- Increased capacity of Tribes, Tribal Health Organizations, Urban Indian Organizations, and Tribal Communities
- Decreased AI/AN morbidity and mortality
- Increased capacity for and delivery of core public health functions

STRAATEGIES
- Strengthen Public Health Capacity and Infrastructure
- Implement Activities to Improve Effectiveness of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention
- Engage in Sustainability Activities

INPUTS
- Network Coordinating Center
- Component A Awardees
- $42.5 M (5 years)
- Existing infrastructure and staff of TECs